Highlights

Even though we have been handed another year of inadequate funding, increased pressures for student test results, and additional reporting responsibilities with "No Child Left Behind", we have had a great year at Bliss School. The highlight of my year has been observing the dedication, hard work, and commitment of the Bliss staff to the students of our district. Meeting AYP numbers is important, and I hope we can get over the hump this year, but we will continue to measure our success on the growth of each individual student.
